Correspondence: Sarah Larson's response to the Commission's thanks for her presentation: I want to express my sincere thanks to your commission for not only having me this Wednesday but also your interaction and active interest in our initiatives. I look forward to continuing to work with your commission to further advocate for and implement programs that benefit those members of our community who are differently-able!

Superintendent Josh Medeiros' response to Chairman Micari's remarks on the Park Department's commitments to accessibility and collaboration: Thank you for the e-mail. Bristol Parks, Recreation, Youth and Community Services has made diversity, equity and inclusion a central focus of our work. This includes a commitment to ensuring our park spaces and programs are accessible for everyone. I had no doubt Sarah represented these initiatives beautifully. We look forward to our continued partnership with the Commission for Persons with Disabilities.
